

BE A FRIEND, BECOME A MEMBER

As an independent support group for Crawford Art Gallery, the Friends' aim is to promote an awareness of the gallery, its collection and exhibitions and to foster an interest in all aspects of art and heritage. Through your membership and participation in the Friends' events you provide support to the gallery through the Friends Legacy Fund for future acquisitions and exhibitions.

MEMBERS' CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Spring & Autumn Talks Series

12.30 – 13.30pm. Visit website for more details. In conjunction with the Gallery we organize lunchtime talks on Art History, Contemporary Art and our local heritage of Art and Architecture.

Day Trips & Private Tours

These take place both locally and nationally throughout the year and are usually to major exhibitions (e.g. Canaletto at the National Gallery) to houses and gardens of historic interest, (e.g. Tullyally Castle, Co. Westmeath) or private artist studios. (e.g. Abbey Stained Glass Studios Dublin). Travel is by private coach and a group lunch at an attractive venue is always incorporated.

Members receive notification of and invitations to private previews and to the opening of all gallery exhibitions e.g. The Preview of Mary Swanzy 'Voyages' 2019.

Exclusive In House guided tours & Talks

Members can enjoy exclusive in-house guided tours twice a year followed by tea/coffee in the gallery library.

Annual Cultural Trip Abroad

Members can enjoy an annual trip abroad in the autumn. The holidays are completely guided by professionals from landing to departure with private coach throughout. They incorporate a busy schedule of visits to museums churches and historic houses and places of interest. The 2019 trip was The Delights of Northern Italy the Veneto, Venice and the Palladian Villas.

Members Christmas Party

Every year the Friends hold a Christmas celebration in the Gallery for all members.

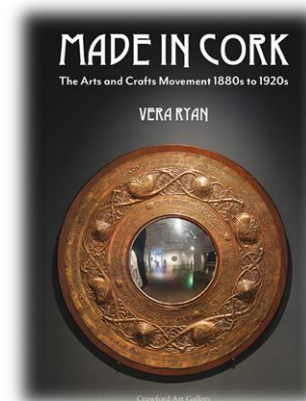

Acclaimed actor Fiona Shaw CBE gave a wonderful exclusive talk to the Friends of the Crawford Art Gallery on Tuesday 29th January 2019 and even posed in front of her portrait, painted in 2002 by artist Victoria Russell.
