Protected Disclosures Act

The Protected Disclosures Act 2014 (the “Act”) came into effect on 15 July 2014. The Gallery has put in place a policy in order to meet its requirements under the Act. This policy applies to ‘workers’, which under the Act includes employees or former employees, independent contractors, agency staff, persons on work experience, volunteers and suppliers.

Section 22 of the Protected Disclosures Act requires public bodies to prepare a report not later than the 30th June each year setting out the number of protected disclosures made to it in the course of the immediately preceding year and certain other information relating to any such protected disclosure.

This report under section 22 of the Protected Disclosures Act covers the period from 1st January 2020 to 31st December 2020.

No disclosures were made to the Crawford Art Gallery in that period.
