BRIAN MAGUIRE

17 September 2021 – 9 January 2022

Press Release 1/09/2021

Remains* opens at Crawford Art Gallery presenting a series of large scale artworks by Brian Maguire. The exhibition depicts the lives lost crossing the border to the US.

Artist Brian Maguire, known for his expressionist paintings addressing issues of social injustice, continues his creative enquiry into the Mexican/American border.

In 2019, Brian Maguire visited Dr Greg Hess, Chief Medical Examiner for Pima County, Tucson, Arizona. Dr Hess gave the artist access to some thousand visual records of migrant lives lost in the crossing from South and Central America and Mexico, into the United States.

Having combed through these records, Brian began a new series of paintings, acknowledging the many unidentified victims who undertook this perilous journey to the United States.

Curator Anne Boddaert says 'When Brian shared his work with us, here in the Crawford Art Gallery, we were upended, we looked and simply could not look away. His works compels the audience to linger on issues of migration and global unrest'.

Anne went on to say "Despite the challenging subject matter, visitors will be drawn to Brian's expressionist style beautifully executed in these expansive paintings.

This exhibition will showcase the artist's poised technique and how he utilises open and rough brushstrokes to represent the harsh landscape of South and Central America and Mexico' .

In late 2020, the Crawford Art Gallery secured the painting Arizona 3 for the national collection. This acquisition opened up a conversation with Brian Maguire about a showing of this emerging body of work, some of his most nuanced and ambitious to date.

Maguire has shown extensively in Europe and the US, most recently at the Museo De Arte de Ciudad Juárez, Mexico and the Rubin Centre, Texas University at El Paso, Texas (September 2019), at the United Nations Headquarters, New York, (in 2020), the Rhona Hoffmann Gallery, Chicago, (January 2021) and Galerie Christophe Gaillard, Paris (March 2021).

A catalogue with full colour illustrations and texts by Dr Hess, Christian Viveros-Fauné and Edward Vulliamy accompanies the exhibition.
